

Curriculum Vitae Boris Mijatovic

Boris Mijatovic was born in 1974 in Kassel, Germany. After graduating from high school, he worked for a start-up company in international trade. From 1996 to 2001, he studied political science and economics at the University of Kassel and the Université de Nice Sophia-Antipolis, majoring in international relations and applied statistics. Boris Mijatovic then worked at the international textile trading company VF Germany in Frankfurt/M. until 2004, before starting an internship at the International Criminal Court in The Hague in 2005 and subsequently working freelance on projects in the field of international criminal law and war victims research for the ICTY and the OSCE.

Before being elected as a member of the Bundestag himself in 2021, Boris Mijatovic worked as a political advisor to former Bundestag member Nicole Maisch and, until 2021, to MEP Martin Häusling. He also took on several party posts: he was green parliamentary group leader in Kassel city hall, and he served as city councilor for integration and sports, and for youth policy and participation. He was also district chairman of the Kassel green party and a member of the state executive committee.

Curriculum Vitae Boris Mijatovic

- born 1974 in Kassel, Germany

Green Party

- Since 2019: Parliamentary group leader in Kassel city hall
- Since 2018: Member of the state executive committee
- 2015 to 2019: District chairman of the Kassel green party
- Since 2011: City councilor in Kassel city hall; until 2016 for integration and sports, currently for youth policy and participation
- Member of Bündnis90/Die Grünen since 2004

Profession

- 2021: Member of the Bundestag
- 2018 to 2021: Adviser to the green Member of European Parliament Martin Häusling
- 2011 to 2017: Adviser to the green Member of the Bundestag Nicole Maisch
- 2009 to 2010: Green parliamentary group leader in the Kassel city hall (parental leave replacement)
- 2006 to 2009: Freelance work in projects in international criminal law and war victim research, ICTY and OSCE
- 2005 to 2006: Internship at the International Criminal Court, The Hague
- 2003 to 2004: Employee in the international textile trading company VF Germany, Frankfurt/M
- 2001 to 2002: Research assistant at the University of Kassel
- 1996 to 2001: Master's degree in political science, University of Kassel and Université de Nice Sophia-Antipolis; main focus: international relations and applied statistics; second degree: economics
- 1995 to 1998: Employee in an international trade start-up company