

Curriculum Vitae Boris Mijatovic, MP Deutscher Bundestag

Boris Mijatovic (born in 1974 in Kassel, Germany) is a Member of the German Bundestag for the Alliance 90/The Greens. He serves as a full member for the Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Committee on Human Rights and Humanitarian Assistance, as a Chairman of the Subcommittee on International Order, United Nations, and International Organizations, and as a substitute member of the Committee on European Affairs.

His parliamentary work focuses on defending the rules-based international order, on promoting civilian crisis prevention, and on strengthening the humanitarian system. He is particularly engaged in addressing the chronic underfunding of humanitarian assistance and countering the erosion of international humanitarian law. Mr. Mijatovic advocates for principled humanitarian action, stronger protection of civilians, and accountability for violations of international humanitarian law. He is also a member of the Supervisory Board of the Centre for International Peace Operations (ZIF).

Mr. Mijatovic studied political science, modern history, and economic and social geography at the University of Kassel and the Université de Nice Sophia-Antipolis, graduating in 2001. Early in his career, he worked at the International Criminal Court in The Hague and contributed to research projects on international criminal law and victim-centered justice for the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY) and the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE).

Before being elected to the Bundestag in 2021, Mr. Mijatovic gained experience as a policy advisor both in the German Bundestag and in the European Parliament. He was also active in local politics in Kassel, where he first served as a city councillor and later as chair of the Green parliamentary group. In addition, he is involved with Streetbolzer Kassel, a football project that promotes participation, fairness, and respect among children and young people regardless of their background and social circumstances.
